

Jon Nichols

Sales Manager

Bug House Pest Control

Jon is a lifelong resident of Houston County who has served in many capacities and on many boards ranging from First Baptist Centerville to Robins Region Chamber of Commerce, International City Optimist Club and was selected for the Honorary Commanders Program serving Robins Air Force Base. He also served his community politically as a City Councilman in Centerville Georgia. Jon is a proud Northside High School alumna, and supports his alma mater wherever he can. He is passionately driven for giving families places to gather and play.

Jon and his wife, Laura stay busy raising their family, running her business and serving others however they can.