

Carrie Holderfield, P.G., P.M.P. is a Senior Geologist and Project Management Professional working as a Senior Geologist at Geotechnical and Environmental Consultants. Carrie is a registered Professional Geologist in Georgia, South Carolina, and Texas. She is also a graduate of the Institute for Georgia Environmental Leadership (Class of 2019).

Carrie is a transplant from Texas and has lived in wonderful Warner Robins for about 7 1/2 years. Carrie earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Environmental Science at the University of Texas at San Antonio (go Roadrunners!), with specializations in geology, biology, and chemistry. Her amazing family instilled core values in her, including service to community, compassion, a love of nature, and a belief that you can accomplish anything you set your mind to. She is proud to serve as a member of the Wellston Trees and Greens and Habitat for Humanity board, who are dedicated to serving and improving the lives of the Warner Robins community.
