

Sheldon Hudlin

First Class Cleaning Service

Owner

Sheldon is a Northside High School graduate and an Army veteran. He owns First Class Cleaning Service, creator of "Whatcha Got Cookin" which has become a very popular blog page on Facebook, and the Chair for the 2022 Walk to End Alzheimer's. He also serves on several community boards throughout the city of Warner Robins. Sheldon's passion is to see growth in our community.

He has been married to his wife, Charlotte King Hudlin for over 25 years, and feels truly blessed to have the family we share today.
